

Announcement of the Department of Intellectual Property
Subject: No Gift Policy for All Executives and Officials of the Department of Intellectual Property in the Performance of Their Duties
Fiscal Year B.E. 2570 (2027)

The Department of Intellectual Property is committed to administering the organization in accordance with the principles of integrity and transparency. All personnel have a shared responsibility to promote a culture and values of integrity in the performance of their duties, with an emphasis on good governance in organizational management, in order to foster public confidence and trust in the services provided by the Department.

In recognition of this responsibility, the Department hereby reaffirms its firm commitment to performing its duties and managing the organization with honesty, integrity, transparency, and accountability.

The Department of Intellectual Property therefore declares its intention to operate as a "No Gift Policy" organization, under which all executives and officials shall refrain from accepting gifts, gratuities, or any other benefits of any kind, whether before, during, or after the performance of their duties, where the acceptance of such gifts, gratuities, or benefits could lead to corruption or misconduct.

This Announcement is hereby issued for general information and strict compliance by all concerned.

Announced on 30 October B.E. 2569 (2026)
